ENTRAL, hear my thoughts and list.
Years, the ragged toll of time
Judge misfits, deeds we've missed.
Scars will show the deeds, sublime
In hours spent in mist.

Parley not, where end is lost.
Linger on thy gains; rejoice
Your aim, not gain—await your joust.

Ends are never means,—a voice
To catch an idle boast.

Ask no quarter, seek no end
Do, and deeds fulfill reward;
Thy reward in quarter spend,
Dearly pay men to afford
A safer, quarter's end.

Place all wealth below thy aims.
Years remove their gilded lace,
Showing artful Pleasure's blames.
Reaping doubt; the inward face
Reflects his shameless reigns.

CLASS HISTORY

FEBRUARY 1938

ERE I am, a Central High School student. Well, here I am anyway . . . Am I lucky, managed to buy an elevator ticket from a soph . . . So, you need a medical excuse for the elevator, huh? When I see that soph, he'll need one. First holiday from School . . . Always did think Lincoln was a great guy . . . Hmmm, another one. I guess Washington was just as great. Darn it! That F shows up so much on these small report cards.

April Made up my mind to be prepared for all tricks, but was caught at 8:31 by the old "Your shoelace is untied" gag. Oh well. Discovered Bill's today . . . Spring fever is getting me. Say, where are all these blondes Central is supposed to have? Haven't seen a natural yet.

June Whoopee!!!

INTERMISSION

Sept. Back to school. "Educated" frosh now. Well, almost educated. Had first assembly this term. Band warmed up for football games. Students practiced some cheers. Sang a song supposedly to have been "Cheer, Cheer for Central." Student opinion varies from "Maryland, My Maryland," to "Old Black Joe." "Doc" Smith couldn't be pinned down for a definite answer . . . It was "Cheer, Cheer for Central" after all. The drummer told me.

Oct. Good old Columbus. I was forgetting how it felt to be out from school a day. Guess I'll have to become famous after all to give the high school students more holidays. That F still looks big . . . Losing interest in blondes. Can't find her anyway.

Nov. Celebrated Armistice Day in advance by making peace with Study Hall teacher over a cut. She accepted the explanation. Evidently cutting must be easy to get away with. Must do it again soon . . . Gosh, I thought the explanation was better than before. Wish they'd put cushions on the office chairs.

Dec. Wonder if they play hookey before Christmas in High School . . . Yes, they do . . . Yes I did . . . No it's not worth it.

Jan. Not one F was visible as a term mark. Yippee! The lowest mark was a D. (That's all I got.) Tried to get in at the Junior-Senior Prom, but the doorman said I was a "Freshie," ??? Ah, me, the 4A's have graduated. Now I know I'm closer to my goal.

FEBRUARY 1939

Feb. Yep, by the skin of the teeth on a bird. Sophomore at last.
What son? An elevator ticket? Sure, here you are, only a quarter. Oh, you're welcome . . . Gosh that freshie certainly can sock.
Annex students came over today. Now, maybe I'll get to see that natural blonde at last.

March Caesar was killed on the ides of March. I came close to it, too. I laughed at Miss O'Connor's joke before it was finished in Study Hall today. Lucky I have her for a study and not a class-room teacher. Boy, am I dumb. Don't say it.

April Wasn't even fooled once . . . Spring fever again. Think I'll ask a girl to cure it for me. Not a blonde, either.
Saw my first Central baseball game.
Observation: Boy—Think I'll go out for the baseball team next year.
Girl—Think I'll go out with the baseball team next year.

May Soph seen smoking a pipe (me) . . . Same Soph absent from school (me again).

June Success!

INTERMISSION

Sept. Ho, hum, school again. I'm getting used to it now . . . No song this term.

Oct. Wow! Have I discovered a blonde, (natural, too), right after Columbus Day. Columbus and I must be psychic . . . Think I'll take up dancing . . . Timed Miss O'Connor's joke perfectly.

Nov. Something's wrong. Central doesn't seem to realize its good fortune in getting our class. Oh, well, they'll find out.

Dec. Santa Claus presented us with a long, awaited vacation. Earned it too. No F's.

Jan. Only two more years of school, and I'll be wearing a cap and gown, (maybe.) Our advisers are starting to collect class dues, and not quite a junior yet. Silly, ain't it?

JUNIOR YEAR
FEBRUARY 1940

Feb. Egads, lunch the sixth. Wonder when she eats? Wish Mom wouldn't make me carry my lunch.

March Got a new locker partner,—basketball player. Collects photographs. Class meeting second period. Got the devil for going to it—had a test on. Oh boy! I missed it.

Apr. April Fool! She's a blond again.

May Put another simoleon in the kitty on the 16th. Got two of them paid up now. Wonder when I can draw it out? Gonna spend the interest on a Student Council ticket.

June Exams.—Carrying my rabbit foot for good luck, and the answers just in case. Egads, I passed!!!, with the aid of Mr. Ralston whom I casually met in the principal's office. Think for yourself John!!!

INTERMISSION

Sept. Oh me! School again. Now let me see,—what was that blonde's name that sat in front of me in English? Got news that Mrs. Hopper and Dr. McSharry (V.E.T.) were going to be our class advisers. Classes organized—what-do-ya-know,—she's in my class. Football begins.

Oct. Guess it's this Indian Summer, or the Student Council Dance. Marvelous football players. Class elections held.

President	JOHN PFAFF
Vice-President	FRANK GEGENHEIMER
Secretary	EVELYN CHERNICHAW
Treasurer	STRATOS ARIDAS

Nov. Organization perfect, making swell headway. Carrying enormous books, enormous lunches, and enormous swelled heads.

Dec. Remember that blond? She's a red head now! Good old Saint Nick, comes just at the right time. Ten days and nothing to do.

Jan. "Students" scared to death. Report cards given out. Eureka! Passed all but one (grades, not that blond, oops, red head.) Went to the Junior Senior Prom,—withdrew five (5) simoleons (bucks).

SENIOR YEAR
FEBRUARY 1941

- Feb. Typical Einstein conversation—
"Hello Joe wha-da-ya know?"
"I'm a Senior don't you know?"
Maybe it's not Einstein, but I've heard lots worse.
- March New classes organized. Sit in back of her again in English. There're so many tarnished, silver threads among the gold, I hardly recognized her. Each term I take a picture of her in Kodachrome—red, black and blond sure do produce contrasts.
- April Went to a school dance. Got a sneaking suspicion Dr. McSharry's a hep cat,—only, the girls run away when he asks them to dance.
- May Tangent's being crowded for space, due to the influx of Senior Honor Roll students. Wanna bet???
- June Just found out what's the cause of absences. It seems some pupils are very superstitious. They won't go to school in any week that has a Friday in it, Happy day! Report card— magna cum laude!

INTERMISSION

- Sept. Back again, this time for good. Had our pictures taken for the year-book. Finally found out how we really looked. Can you tell me where to find a good plastic surgeon? Senior elections held.

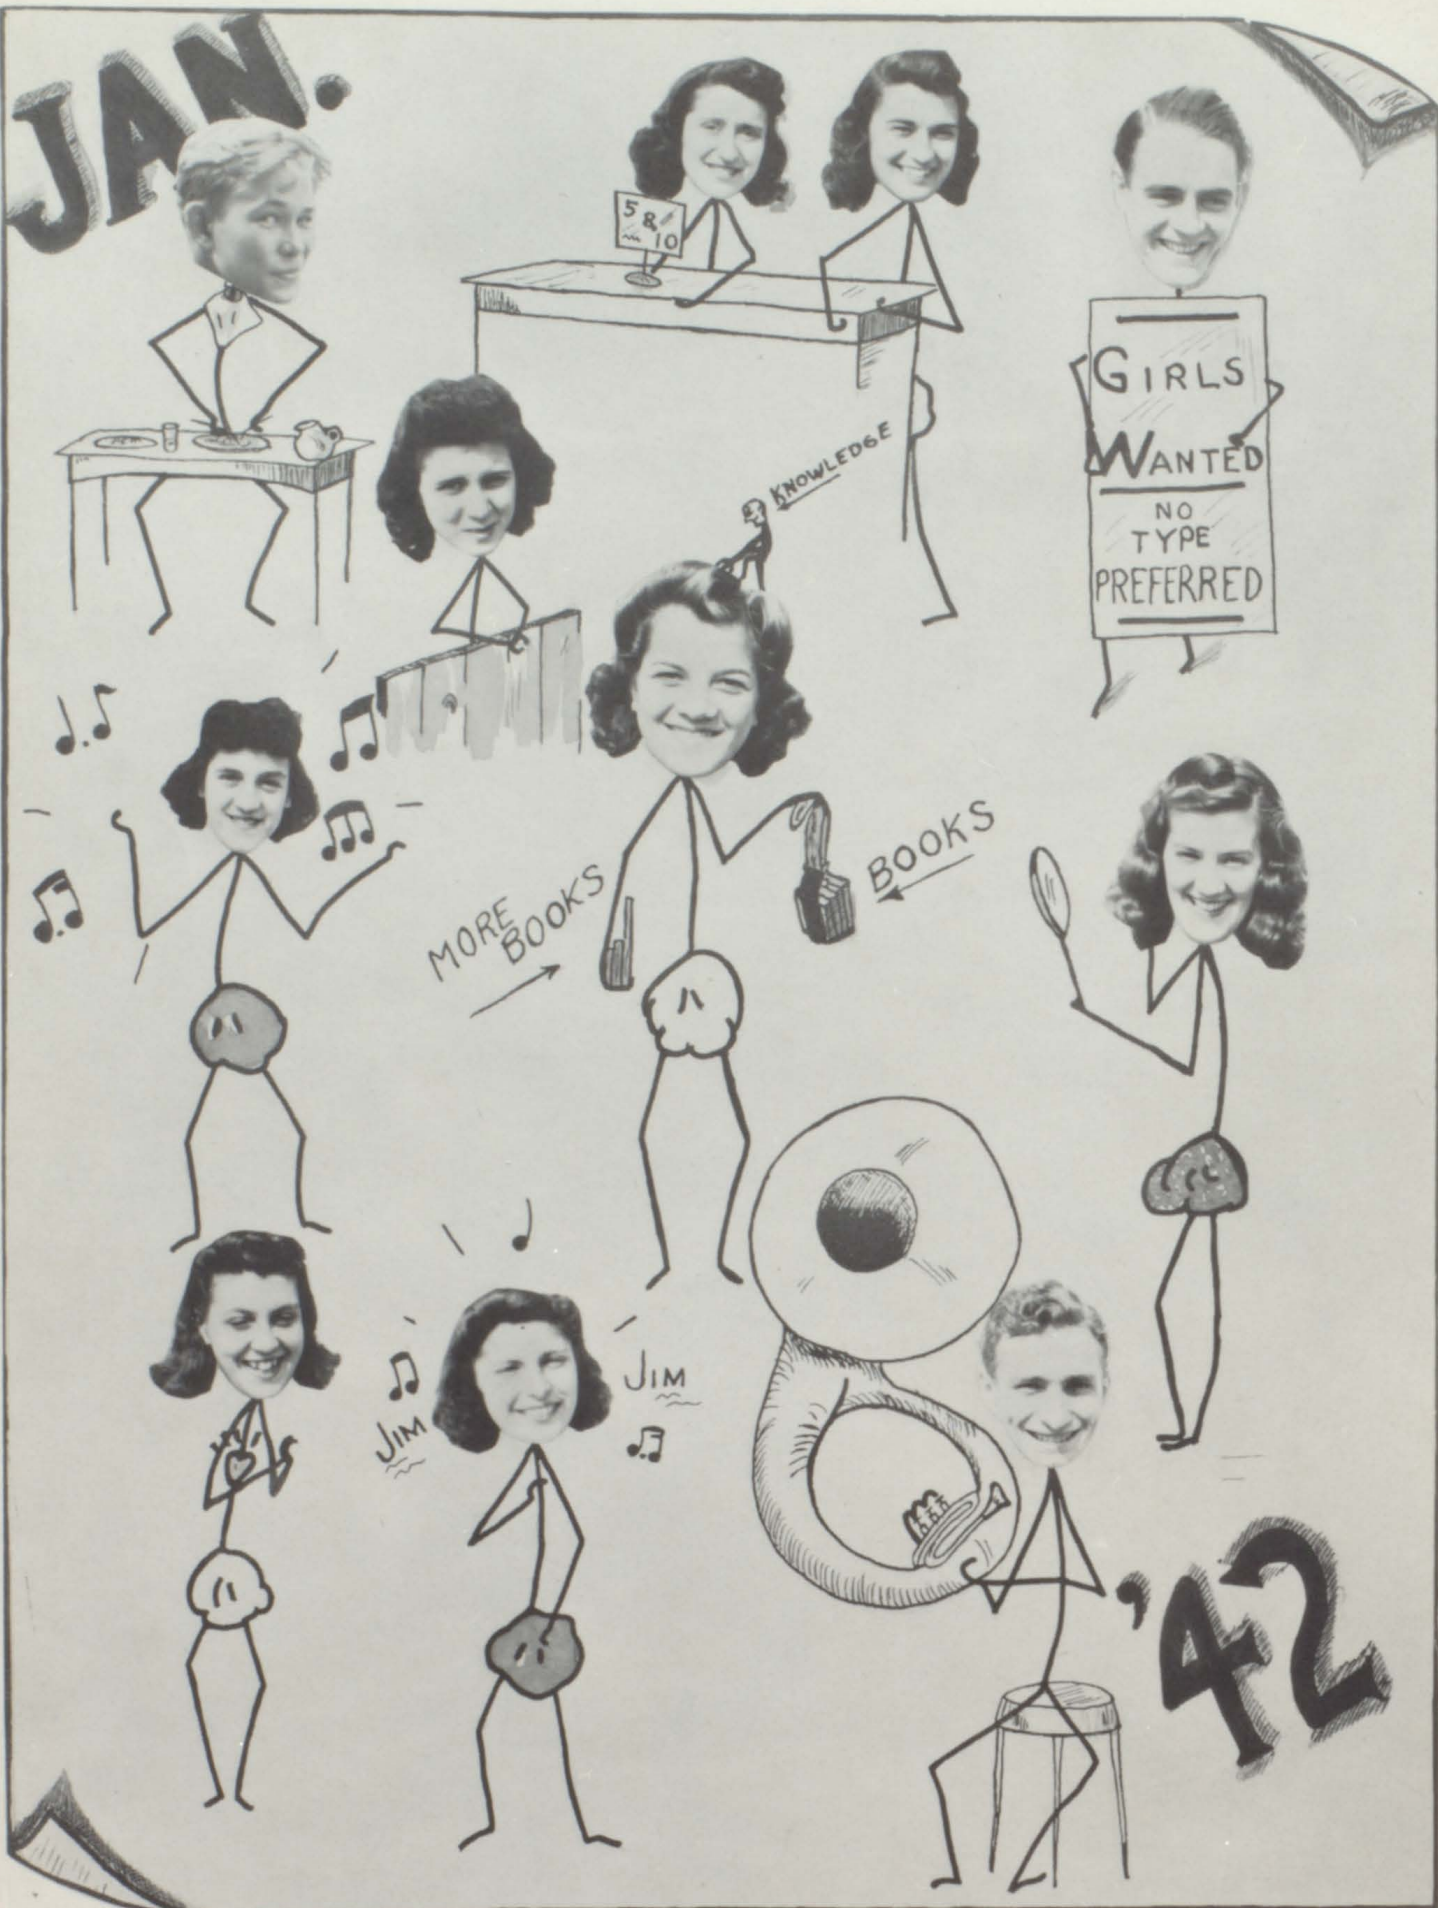

President	ANTHONY DiCROCE
Vice-President	MARIE GUARINO
Secretary	EVELYN CHERNICHAW
Treasurer	VIOLET KORRIS

- Oct. Went to the Harvest Moon Ball Dance—was a sort of Hollowe'en and social dance. Ten per cent of the class didn't have to wear masks.
- Nov. Football team superb. Finally redeemed themselves in the face of numerous difficulties. More power to you, Central, you deserve some of the cream, after taking all of the coffee these past years.
- Dec. Went to the 4A Class Dance. Did you? Christmas vacation. Gave that blond a bottle of black peroxide.
- Jan. "Store teeth", chattering. Report cards given out. Will it mean graduation? Success! All A's on report card—well drain my gas and call me lckes!

Junor Senior Prom held. What a moon! What a night! What a drain on my surplus!

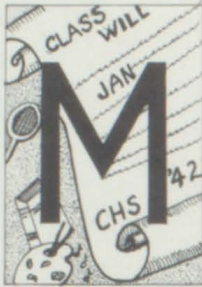

Farewell! May the memories and dreams, so abundant in Central, forever endure—esto perpetua!

JAN.

CLASS WILL

Y FRIENDS, I have called you to assemble here as a solemn duty, that you, the heirs and assigns of my respected client, the Class of 1942, may hear her last will and testament which, as her legal advisers, we drew, as directed by her immediately prior to her passing from our presence.

May we, as well as our lamented client, entreat that you receive your respective legacies in the spirit of unselfish friendship with which they were given! I shall appreciate your courteous attention while I read this duly attested will.

We, the Class of 1942, in the City of Newark, the County of Essex, and the State of New Jersey, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession (we think) of a crammed mind, well (?) trained memory, and almost super-human understanding, being in as good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby make this our Last Will and Testament, rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us during a period of temporary sanity (or optimism).

Item 1. To Mr. Ralston, our principal, we give and bequeath a sense of relief that we have at last been graduated, pleasant memories of our years together, and a feeling of pride in any great deeds or noteworthy achievements that our future may contain.

Item 2. To our teachers we bequeath our invaluable sense of humor, without which we should have found school life painful, indeed, and which will do much to make it endurable for them. We also leave them such knowledge as we have imparted to them in our daily work. We know that much of such knowledge must have been entirely new to them, as well as to all teachers and students everywhere, and would throw much new light on many an unfamiliar line of thought.

SPECIFIC TO THE FACULTY

1. To Miss Allen, a means of shortening her power to give long short-hand assignments.
2. To Mrs. Hopper, an extensive and all-embracing course in the art of sketching to help her bring her Art Students "out of the fog."
3. To Mr. Haessler, we leave many broken test tubes to be used as toys.
4. To Dr. McSharry, just one class, small if need be, but intellectual so that he can give the kind of English course he'd like to.
5. To Mr. Eisen we leave a clothes pin as an article for defense in certain experiments.

6. To Mr. O'Brien, one book of jokes to brush up on.
7. To Mr. Wakefield, a little more courage so he can give that hidden voice of his a chance; it brightens the whole day to hear a teacher sing.
8. To Coach Reilly and his football team—12 victory cakes.
9. To Mr. Walling, an extra supply of patience when entering his home room.
10. To Mr. Turnbull, we bequeath a roll of undeveloped film to use as he pleases.
11. To Miss Lovell, needles and thread for those unexpected runs that "pop" in the girls' stockings.
12. To Miss Winberg, hopes of someday having a piano that is in tune.
13. To Dr. Profeta, his beloved Sales Club—a miniature department store.
14. To Mr. Schleicher, one soap box on which to make his daily history speeches.

Item 3. We give and bequeath to the Junior Class our well known "NERVE".

Item 4. To our good friends, the Sophomore Class, we leave our patience. It will be found useful as the only means by which they can endure the present day Juniors.

Item 5. We have left the Freshmen nothing, because by the time they become Sophomores their self-valuation will have attained such heights, that no thing in our possession would be regarded by them as worthy of their distinction.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sole executors of this, our Last Will and Testament, our class advisers, Mrs. Rosamond Hopper and Dr. John T. McSharry.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of 1942, the testator, have set our hand and seal on this twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord 1942.

FIRST AND
FINAL EDITION

Local Boy Makes Good (In Draft)

William Miller, dramatic actor of several Broadway smash hits written by Robert Forschner, finally came to Hollywood to make a picture. When he arrived at the station, Doretha Baker, Norma Guarino, and Burnell Hamiel, well-known secretaries, were there to meet him. Also Michael Caso, to tell him that he was called by the Draft Board.

Caught: In The Draft

Among the many young men to leave for Fort Dix were the following:

Ed Powell—football star
Alan Lyon—artist
Louis Chernikow—draftsman
Sal Melillo—baseball star
Tony Evangelista—football star
Martin Hansen—pianist
Phil Falzarano—engineer
Zoltan Borbely—movie star
William Spaven—poet

The following were deferred:

John Nosti—trumpet player with Goodman, because he's short winded.

Walter Stachovsky—salesman for the Fuller Brush Co., because of flat feet.

The Only Woman

A passenger on a non-stop trip around the world will be the daring air hostess, Mildred Danduone. The other passengers include pilot Frank Regenthal, co-pilot Lawrence Marchesano, navigator Santo Messina, radio operator Albert Seborowski, and mechanic Angelo Del Vecchio.

The dynamic stratospheric plane that will carry the dare-devil passengers, has been designed by modest Jack Heberling. Will they make it?

Hall Johnson Choir

Emily Smith, Elizabeth Johnson, and Pearl Cooper received a hearty welcome from the Hall Johnson Choir.

Stupendous!!

Those three great scientists of the century, Joseph Casale, Ferdinand Candido, and Rose Ann Caputo have discovered a new formula for marble cake.

Quiet

Quiet Anne Pardini, attractive Marie Guarino, vivacious Jeanrose Iascone and sophisticated Alice Terhune, models at Angela Grieco's Dress Shoppe, are struggling into their clothes without the aid of Helen Greene, who injured her wrist at her profession.

Can It Be?

Designer Catherine Gianacopoulos created those glamorous gowns worn by actress Hariclia Fraggos at Fort Bragg.

Foreign Correspondent

Marie Castellano reports that Jerry Russo will sing before the King and Queen of England, accompanied by Rose Caputo on the harmonica.

Alice Zakian, his secretary, is accompanying him on his European tour, at her own expense.

Breaks All Records

Jack Haas, inventor of unbreakable records, broke all records in selling swing recordings.

Unknown

Salesgirl Martha Bleyfeder gave her classmate Helga Thiele, now a prominent debutante, a few suggestions on how to get dates. This she received from college grads Irene Pawlakos and Josephine Albanese, who, in turn collected them from clerical workers, Marie Vaughn, Marie Nepolitano, Edna Pointer, and Pearl Jenkins, of the N.Y.A.

Witty

The wittiness of Commodore Wesley Lockwood Winnie, guest star on the Elaine (Myrt) Fahnenstiel and Gertrude (Marge) Gleason program, is still rocking the nation. However, they failed to pass the Television Inspection.

Central Is Proud

The Prudential reported that Helen Smith, Geraldine Sica, Angie Tedesco, Catherine Divizio, and Minnie De Maio are excelling in their work, when present.

The melodious voices of Vera Pieroni, Marie Perotti, Connie Casale, Marie Perugino, Rose Cappelto, Marie Mesce, and Beatrice Press can be heard singing over telegraphic telephone.

Surrounded

Secretaries Gladys Ludlow, Carolyn Jovanis, Violet Korris, Helen Durkin, Selma Schiller, Clara Saunders, Marie Zito, Florence Mattia, and Rose Ritacco, are surrounding executive Victor Durante of the Pushbutton Doorbell Co.

Extras

Ciriaco Genova, James Hendry, Perry Churus, Harry Brown, Helen D'Innocenzio, and Marie Freda, will be featured in a forth-coming Warner Bros. picture starring two great stars, Ted Starbinski and Dorothy Wormald, as Donald and Daisy Duck.

Scriptwriter

William Papanestor quit writing for Stoopnagle Nick Maddaloni to go to work for world-renowned Robert Noniewicz. Latest reports—he was fired.

Fencer

Jerry Negro is "fenced in" by pitter-pattering hearts from the Old Ladies Home.

New Arrivals

Jennie Yorlano, Dorothy Librizzi, Marie Miele, and Marie Conte are dance hostesses, at the Stork Club, New York, now owned by Dick Granziel, a grad of Newark College of Pan-handling.

Knighted

Sam Buonocore was knighted July 15, 1945, by the Knights of Columbus Lodge. His voice registered 1000 decibels during initiation.

Opened: For Business

A bicycle store has been opened by Edgar Riddle. At present Theodore Szulczynski, Peter Doroshenko, William Puterbaugh, and George Buchman, technicians, have been employed as spokesmen.

Be Present

Everybody will be on hand for the graduation of Evelyn Chernichaw from the College of Accounting, June 30, 1945, at 2 p. m. Some account!

The One and Only

That quaint, little blacksmith shop in town is owned by Harry Filliger and Harold Shrensel.

Religious Instructor

Doris Ciccone has been busy preparing a Sunday School Class for confirmation, she herself is planning the reception of Matrimony.

Nursing

Thelma Lish and Freda Russo are nursing ailing husbands. (one each)

Typing

Gilda Matera now types 35 words per minute for one minute.

Cousins Will Fight

Ben and Kenneth Longo are in each other's hair at the Longo Barber Shop.

Stuffing

Emil Stefanelli is stuffing animals at the City Dumps.

Secretary

Congratulations to Eleanor Manderschied, a full fledged Secretary.

The Army Honored

The Army will be honored with ex-Centralite football players, Jerry Nisivoccia and Peter Petrone to aid them win the battle of the mud this year.

Shower

A shower to which Marie Magguilli, Catherine Kane, Elsie Williams, Viola Adubato, Tessie Sessa, Geraldine Rullis, Marie Reboli were invited to celebrate Ida Betta's coming marriage. Each guest presented the bride-to-be with an expensive gift from Woolworths.

Leaders

Nick Racioppi, leader of his Ward, is backing George Sagot for commissioner.

Notice

Peter Kubik accompanied by Anthony Ammirato will be at all the contests held at Madison Square Garden. He is a former student of One-Eyed Connolly.

Witnessed

The Air Show of 1945 was "critically" witnessed by Ed Nosek, John Penna, Ed Zlydak, James Romano, and Henry Walther. Their condition is improving.

John Walsh, Julius Zdeiblo, John Sing, William Miller, William Mackin, Vincent Luciano, and Wesley Knight are now on the staff of the Casey Jones School.

Frank Gegenheimer, Dominick Carlucci and Louis Amatucci looked very prosperous promenading along Broad Street. Remember Richard Cory?

"Caught"

Martin Levine, Charles Gibson, and Dominick Deseno weren't badly injured in the explosion caused by "amateur" chemist, Thomas Di Blasi.

Join Technicians' Union

Fred Stockinger, Fred Schall, Chas. Krohne, Joe Campione, Charles Di Como, will be delighted to serve you at the new colossal Technicians' Union.

Technicians

Franklin Fisher, Bob Bonnet, Emil Spina, Wm. Wankmuller, and Wm. Cranston were chosen to build a new electric plant for Stanley Werwezka's toys.

Flash!

Theresa Di Buono came in last at the Olympic Swimming Tournament.

Related?

No! Catherine and Theresa Caputo are only good friends.

Known

Gladys Sommer is known for the number of spills she takes at the skating rink. Who's the hero?

Private

Private William Zmith would look very handsome if he had a uniform that fitted, instead of the potatoe bag.

Loud

Grace Malara is now champion hog and husband caller.

Big Eyes

Too bad Antoinette Colatrella hides those big, beautiful brown eyes from admiring glances.

Wonder?—if Madaline Denkinger, a former Newarker who went to Hawaii to wed her loved one, wears grass skirts.

if Dickson Timoney, who once predicted that he'd be president of the United States, is still working toward that goal.

if Gordon Potasnick and George Reinhardt are trying to beat the draft. They were seen along Park Avenue wheeling baby carriages.

Finally

Marie Petretta has succeeded in selling Findlay Corsar, a red-headed ensign, a pair of purple pajamas.

Lost and Found

Lost—Tony Di Croce, who's always losing his belongings, has lost himself!

Found—Paul Huzar's bathing trunks on the bottom of Olympic Pool.

Good News

Thomas Amico is being nursed back to health by nurse Stella Starbinsky, after having sprained his tongue playing his harmonica in a nation-wide concert.

Personal

Have you a mystery you want solved? Dick Granzel, G-Man is convenient at all hours in Kresge's Toy Department.

Piano lessons are given by Marie Anderson for an exceptionally low fee. Special fee on the baby piano.

Outfitter

Tony Deseno, clerk in a woman's apparel shop, outfitted Wanda Turon, model for the coming fashion show. She no longer models.

Believe It Or Not

Homeroom 4A's Traveling chariots were rejected by car inspector John Celeste.
